Freedom is not free by Shiv Khera pdf download is the one of those books which have been written with a huge purpose to enlighten people about the true meaning of freedom. This book has been written to show the world that there are many other ways in which they can fight for their own freedom besides just nonviolent disobedience as done by Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr. In this book, Shiv Khera tried to emphasize his point that same type of nonviolence will have different results in different country and culture In this article, we will write an introduction to a factual blog post explaining what's going on in Syria. The organization is committed to the liberation of the "whole human race" and has stated that they do not make any distinction on their views of religion. They call on all people of good will to join them in their fight towards a world based on justice and equality. The objectives of the organization are: The organization is committed to the liberation of all oppressed people without discrimination upon religious or other differences, economic or political opinions, sex, ethnic origin etc. Today's world is dominated by Neo-Liberalism, in which corporate interests rule supreme in keeping wealth for themselves and exploiting the poor. This manifests itself by an ideology known as "Free market fundamentalism". Free market fundamentalism is based upon the expansion of trade and capital, to the detriment of workers' rights, the environment, and the wellbeing of people. The organization believes that this ideology must be opposed; they seek to create inclusive economic systems that function in the interests of all people. The founding year was 1983 in Bangladesh by Dr. Abdul Alim Siddiqui. He was born on 2 February 1944 at his family home in Shantinagar, Dhaka (present-day Bangladesh). He had studied at Amir Khas School and then Loreto High School, both in Dhaka. He started his career as a teacher at the Daulatpur Government First Grade College when he was 15 years old. After finishing his M.A. in Economics from the University of Dhaka, he started teaching at the Department of Economics of Dhaka University. He was a student leader during his college life. He worked as a lecturer of economics at Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Agricultural University, Barisal and Khulna University, Khulna (both in Bangladesh) till he went to Germany for higher studies. From 1971 to 1975, Abdul Alim Siddiqui studied at the Hochschule für Wirtschaft und Recht (University of Applied Sciences) in Berlin (West Germany). He received his diploma (equivalent to an M.B.A. in the US) and his doctorate (Ph.D.) in Economics from there. His dissertation was on development economics and titled: "The Dynamics of the Economic Development of Bangladesh (1947–1973): A Case Study". After 1964, Abdul Alim Siddiqui remained active in politics. He was involved with the student wing of Pakistan People's Party (PPP). As a result, he was jailed by Ayub Khan's government for 10 months. After that, he became a full-time activist of the PPP, going to village after village to spread the message of socialism and raising funds for Al-Badr forces in 1971 during Bangladesh Liberation War .
